

THE WORSHIP OF GOD

Lent invites us to contemplate the connections between winter and spring, death and resurrection, and how self-denial makes our hearts fertile growing places for the seeds of faith.

THE ACT OF WORSHIP

The First Sunday in Lent

February 22, 2026

Ten-thirty o'clock

PREPARATION AND PRAISE

The worship of God begins this morning as you enter the sanctuary. You are encouraged to use these moments for meditation, reflection, and prayer. Following the service, please enjoy a time of fellowship with those around you.

The Meditation of Preparation

Focused stillness creates an empty space in which to test the rough edges of experience and to discover wider perspectives...Without cultivating times of silence and solitude, we cannot create an environment of obedient listening in which to hearken to God's voice.

—Thomas R. Hawkins

The Prelude “A Lenten Prelude” Callahan

The Call to Worship Dubois

“Christ, We Do All Adore Thee”

Christ, we do all adore thee, and we do praise thee forever.
For on the holy cross hast thou the world from sin redeemed.

*The Processional Hymn No. 701 BEECHER

“God Is Here!”

*The Litany of Praise Valerie Linn

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: We are beloved children of God,
but we stumble in the wilderness.

People: We are beloved children of God,
and we do not walk alone.

Leader: We are distracted by the need for more;
People: The word of God satisfies our deepest hunger.
 Leader: We serve in hopes of gaining favor;
People: The love of God is unconditional.
 Leader: We seek control and power;
People: The kingdom of God is found in humble service.
All: We are beloved children of God.
We do not walk alone.

*The Gloria Patri

MEINEKE

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
 world without end. Amen. Amen.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

The Meditation of Confession

Lord, on the way to goodness, when we stumble, hold us; when we fall, lift us up; when we are hard pressed by evil, deliver us; when we turn from what is good, turn us back and bring us at last to your glory.

—Mary Batchelor

The Confession

Geoff Davidson

Leader: People of God, let us call to mind the faithfulness and mercy of God and confess our sins, first in the silence of our own hearts and then together.

Silence is kept

Leader: We have wounded your love.

People: O God, heal us.

Leader: We stumble in the darkness.

People: Light of the world, transfigure us.

Leader: We forget that we are your home.

People: Spirit of God, dwell in us.

Silence is kept

Leader: Lord our God,

All: In our sin we have avoided your call. Our love for you is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early. Have mercy on us; deliver us from judgment; bind up our wounds and revive us; in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Assurance of Pardon

Leader: With the apostle Paul, we are convinced

All: That neither death nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Leader: May the mercy of God forgive us, strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us safe in life eternal; through Jesus Christ, we pray.

All: Amen.

The Morning Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Geoff Davidson

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The Gospel

Matthew 4:1-11

Scott Dickison

Leader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Anthem

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

Coker

Sybil Cheesman, flute

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
save in the death of Christ, my God!
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e’er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all! Amen.

COMMITMENT

Northminster is an open fellowship that wants to share its gift of life and ministry with others. During the Time of Response, this church extends an invitation to membership by request for baptism, by letter from a sister church, or by statement of your Christian experience in another denomination. If you would like to unite with this covenant community, please come forward at this point in the service.

TIME OF RESPONSE

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The scriptures for today are found on the following pages in the pew Bible:

Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7, page 2

Psalm 32, page 440

Matthew 4:1-11, page 785

Today is the first Sunday in Lent. Lent is the season in which we anticipate Jesus’ final trip to Jerusalem and the self-giving nature of love shown in his Passion and death. The season begins with Ash Wednesday and extends for forty weekdays through Saturday of Holy Week. Sundays are excluded from Lent, being regarded as feast days in the midst of the forty-day fast. Because Lent is the most strongly penitential season of the year, the liturgical color is purple.

Our Lenten banner is a visual symbol of Christ’s sacrifice. The images of the cross, thorns, and spear remind us of his agony on our behalf. The pattern is broken, reminding us of the power of the cross, the disruption of evil, and a life broken for us. The purple recalls the penitential color of Lent and the red reminds us of sacrifice.

The banner was designed and made by a Northminster member.

In observance of the Lenten season, only candles and the Bible will be placed on the communion table, reminding us of this prayerful Lenten journey, until the grace of Easter blooms again.

The Birth of Satan: the Biblical Roots of the Evil One and Why He Won't Go Away

Tonight and March 1, 8

Satan, Lucifer, Old Scratch, Beelzebub, the Prince of Darkness. His many names evince the way the devil has captured the popular imagination like few other biblical characters. Yet much of the character we recognize was developed apart from scripture. Over these four weeks, using T.J. Wray and Gregory Mobley's fascinating book, The Birth of Satan: Tracing the Devil's Biblical Roots, as our guide, we will distinguish what the bible actually says from what originates from other sources. Finally, we'll talk about how we make sense of evil in the world and how we might understand the character of the adversary today.

Baptist Distinctives: An Exploration of Denominational Relations

The Great Hall Series

The Great Hall Series is a new offering that will meet in the Great Hall during the Sunday School hour for three or four sessions a year. These sessions are short-term, stand-alone presentations open to all. During a session, some Sunday School classes will meet as usual, while others will pause to join the group in the Great Hall. This format allows flexibility for both classes and individuals, while offering a shared learning opportunity several times during the year. Our first session began this morning and extends over the six Sundays of Lent.

Wendell Berry and the Sabbath Poetry of Lent

Sundays through March 29

The word “sabbath” comes from the Hebrew word for “to stop,” and in practice involves the deliberate pause, or laying aside, of secondary concerns to make room for primary ones. This ancient biblical rhythm provides a beautiful backdrop for our observance of Lent, as we reorient our lives toward the cross and the miracle and mystery of resurrection. During the Sundays of Lent, Scott will lead a study pairing scripture with poems by Wendell Berry, who has devoted many Sundays to writing "sabbath poetry," reflecting on this holy ideal. Join us for discussion, reflection, renewal, and breakfast!

Northminster Women's Retreat

Saturday, February 28—Sunday, March 1
Eagle Ridge Conference Center, Raymond, MS

Unrushed: Finding Sacred Rest

On this year's retreat, we will explore the gift of sabbath as a sacred, unhurried way of being. We'll gather for a learning session on Saturday morning, vespers service and games on Saturday night, and a learning session and worship service mid-day on Sunday. The remaining time will be open for you to explore the gifts of sabbath. We'll have optional sessions on walking the labyrinth, creating art, practicing gentle movement, and settling into quiet meditation, and you will be able to find whatever holy rhythm suits your needs. As always, we'll laugh together, rest together, and savor plenty of good snacks along the way!

Cost: $200 per person; $250 for a single room
(Cost should never keep someone from attending. If there is a need for a scholarship, please contact Lesley Ratcliff.)

While the deadline to sign up has passed, if you would still like to attend, please email Lesley Ratcliff at lesley@northminsterbaptist.org.

Two Opportunities for Lenten Crafting Senior Connections for All Senior Adults

Senior Connections, sponsored by the Senior Adult Ministries Committee, is a new interactive opportunity for senior adults at Northminster to build relationships and community. Open to all senior adults, each monthly activity is self-contained and completed at each meeting with topics focused on the interests of senior adults.

Please join us on Tuesday, March 3, from 1:00-3:00 p.m. in the Great Hall for the first Senior Connections meeting which will feature a Lenten creative activity led by Amy Williams. In addition to the art project with clay crosses and other Lenten symbols, there will be a devotional reflection as well as light refreshments. There is no cost to attend, but registration is required.

Please email Marty Harper at marty@northminsterbaptist.org to sign up.

Lenten Women's Gathering

Tuesday, March 3, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Women of all ages are invited to an evening of creativity, connection, and reflection during the season of Lent. We will gather in the Great Hall to create clay crosses or other Lenten symbols under the guidance of Amy Williams.

The evening will include a light supper, a brief Lenten reflection, and time for meaningful conversation and fellowship.

There is no cost to attend but registration is requested so we can prepare supplies and supper. Please contact Lesley Ratcliff at lesley@northminsterbaptist.org to sign up.
